Baker-Vincent

At Pass Christian, Miss., on Thursday, Dec. 26, 1912, at 10 a. m., Judge J. G. Baker and Mrs. Mary Vincent were married at the home of the latter, in the presence of a number of relatives and a few intimate friends.

Judge Baker is the well known and able judge of the criminal district court of New Orleans, where he is highly esteemed. He has a summer home at the Pass and here he has many friends. His bride is a lady of many accomplishments. She is a niece of Miss Polly Monroe, and closely related to the family of Judge Frank Monroe of Louisiana and others of prominence in business and social circles in that State.

Judge and Mrs. Baker left shortly after the marriage ceremony on the L. & N. north bound train for a short trip, and with their numerous friends the Beacon joins in wishing them many years of happiness.

Musical at School

On New Year afternoon, at 3 o'clock, the pupils of Mrs. Brandt's class will give a musical, in the High School Auditorium, the proceeds of which will be applied to securing accessories to the school. In addition to the instrumental features there will be a number of vocal selections rendered, and all who attend are assured a pleasant afternoon at the extraordinary low price of 10 cents.

Mrs. L. Jurey spent a part of the week with friends in New Orleans.

There may not have been as many drinks in town this Christmas as usual, but there was a number of good jokes.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Bohn, Miss Amy Bohn and Edgar Bohn spent Christmas day with relatives and friends in New Orleans.

Messrs. Jas. Stewart and C. A. Ross, of Lyman, Miss., were guests of Misses Janita and Sadie Beard here on Wednesday evening.

Appropriate and impressive ceremonies, largely attended, were held in the Catholic, Episcopal and Presbyterian churches here on Christmas.

Coke Hawkins, with the Davidson & Co. mercantile establishment at Laurel, Miss., spent a part of the week with his parents at Pineville.

Special Term of Court

January sixth begins the special criminal term of Circuit Court. This term last but one week and will be immediately followed by the regular term which begins on the second Monday, or January 13. The special term was called by Judge Barrett in order that the business of the court might be completed one week earlier than usual, allowing a special term of court to be held in George county. For this reason the regular term of court will probably be of but three weeks' duration.

Taxsmen for the special term from which to select petit juries have been drawn. There will be no grand jury during the special term.

Taxsmen whose names have thus been drawn are:

Supervisors District No. 1—Hart Chien, L. L. Kennedy, B. Ewing, P. A. Englehardt, Ernest T. Her, A. Houler. District No. 2—J. S. Richardson, J. W. Reed, Jason Robertson, A. P. Sides, C. E. Richards, T. J. B. Kellier. District No. 3—Caville Cuevas, Charlie Saucier, Jr., Bernard Chotard, F. D. Cuevas, Edgar Bohn, S. Knudsen. District No. 4—D. W. Price, D. O. Sullivan, L. B. Godard, W. R. Hatten, Leander Ladnier, R. M. Byrd. District No. 5—W. J. Jones, M. E. Brooks, M. V. Hatten, Joseph Breland, J. W. White, Albert O. Neal.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Courtenay were visitors to New Orleans on Monday.

Crop Paper, in rolls and folds; seasonable designs, 5 and 10 cents, at Beacon News Stand.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Benedic, of New Orleans, are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Martie.

Miss Adele McCutcheon, of All Saints College at Vicksburg, is spending the holidays at her home here.

Mrs. E. H. Hall, of New Orleans, is the guest of Miss Polly Monroe, with whom she will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson, of Gulfport, were at the Pass Christmas, the guests of Mrs. Annette Simpson.

Glenn L. Norman, of Mobile, spent Wednesday and Thursday with his parents and sister, at their home at East End.

Christmas Exercises

On Christmas Eve afternoon, at 3:00 o'clock, a highly attended and highly enjoyed Christmas entertainment was held in the First Presbyterian Church by the Sunday School class. There was a large number of people present, and the following program was splendidly rendered:

Hymn No. 21, Yellow Book, by the Sunday School class.

Christmas Talk about the Christ Child, by Rev. Hervey McDowell, pastor.

Recitation by Miss Margaret Dickmeyer.

Hymn No. 55, Green Book, by the Sunday School class.

Recitation, Mother's Day, by Miss C. St. Martin.

Music on Phonograph, operated by Miss Annette Bailey.

Recitation, A Christmas Tragedy, by Miss Adele Laillare.

Hymn, Santa Claus Land, by the Sunday School class.

A generous distribution of fruit, candies and cake was made among the children, followed by closing remarks by the Pastor and the Benediction.

An Early Easter

Not in ninety-five years has Easter come any earlier in the year than it will in 1913, and it will not come as early again for another eighty-seven years.

It is not likely that many persons now living will be around to hear about a new hat or new gown when Easter comes as early as it will in 1913.

The next Easter falls on March 23. Not since 1818 did it arrive sooner in the year. In that year it came on March 22. Not until the year 2000 will it come so early again.

Sixty-seven years ago and fifty-six years ago, respectively, Easter occurred on the same day as it does in 1913. The next year when Easter will pay an early visit will be in 1940, when it will arrive on March 24. In 1815 Easter was on March 26, also in the years 1826, 1837, 1855 and 1904. It will come again on March 26 in 1967, 1978 and 1989.

The latest Easter of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries was in 1850, when it fell on April 24. In 1848 and 1905 it occurred on April 23. Last Easter was on April 7.

An Easter is the most important of all the movable feast of the Christian church. It determines all the rest. Hence next year Ash Wednesday comes on February 5, Ascension, Thursday May 1, and Pentecost, May 11.

Easter can never come earlier than March 22, and the only time it did or could do this from the year 1801 to 2000 was in 1818. This was made possible by having a full moon on March 21 and the following day being Sunday. This coincidence does not occur more than once in a century, and it is only once that the Feast of the Ascension can occur in April, and then on April 30.

The rule provides that Easter shall be the Sunday that follows the fourteenth day of the calendar moon which falls upon or next after March 21.—Ex.

Canning Plant Destroyed by Fire

Rigolets, La., Dec. 25.—Fire last night wiped out the plant of the Kennedy-Lopes Oyster and Fish Company here, and the old "Outing Club" owned by J. G. Heinicke. The flames which spread from a stove in the kitchen of the building, threatened the long line of fishing clubs beyond the Heinicke property.

Cause of fire is unknown.

The plant has not been in operation this year.

The flames were first discovered shortly after 9:30 o'clock in the smoking shed, and from this building passed rapidly to the office, packing room, living quarters and finally to the shipways.

The Kennedy-Lopes company have other factories and packing plants at New Orleans and Biloxi.

Mrs. Irene Curtis spent Monday in New Orleans.

The Board of Mayor and Aldermen reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

T. E. SCHONN, City Clerk.

Christmas Services at DeLisle

The services at the Catholic Church of DeLisle were very impressive on Christmas morning. The celebrated Mass in honor of St. Vincent, written for four voices, by the renowned composer, Viégand, was splendidly rendered by the well trained local choir—the pride of DeLisle. The Hodie Salvator Mundi, composed by the local pastor, was sung with splendid effect, and the English version, written by the talented F. H. Lancaster, of Cuevas, was also well rendered. The sermon was a most appropriate one for the great solemn occasion. The church was tastefully decorated and the attendance was very large.

After the services a large number of young men called on the pastor to extend greeting, whom they found ever ready to share their earthly joys and sorrows
